Headteacher Awards

Mr Sprakes, Head of School presented three pupils with Headteacher Awards.

The pupils, Maisie Gibbs, Claire Potter and Adam Shimmin, were delighted to receive their awards.

Maisie, Malet Lambert's 'Ski Trip Person of the Year 2016', recognised during the Austrian trip as being one of the most supportive pupils travelling to Austria. She was an exemplary pupil and is an excellent example to younger pupils. Mr Sprakes knows she will go far and congratulates her on her successes so far. Well done Maisie.

Claire, one of Malet Lambert's most courageous, hardworking pupils, never lets anything hold her back. She is an inspiration to others and always has a smile on her face.

She has been recognised for her hard work, dedication and her positive and kind attitude towards her learning and the people around her.

She was an inspiration to all her peers and teachers at Malet Lambert. Well done Claire.

Adam, was chosen for this award for being an amazing 'all rounder' with a huge personality. In a similar way to Claire, he would always approach us, interested to know how our weekend has been, discussing the football scores and putting the world to rights. His enthusiasm is infectious and he always worked hard.

He has represented Malet Lambert in sports teams and has shown excellent leadership qualities. He is an inspiration to others, setting a positive example to younger pupils. Mr Sprakes definitely thinks he will be a future candidate on "The Apprentice". Well done Adam.

Congratulations Adam, Claire and Maisie.

Excellence in Sport Awards

This year's Sporting Excellence Awards were awarded to Female Sporting Excellence, Lauryn Milner and Male Sporting Excellence, Jordan Webster.

Lauryn, an extremely talented young lady, was always committed to her studies and demonstrated a positive attitude to learning.

Lauryn represented the school in netball, cross country, badminton, dodgeball, rounders and athletics, excelling in all of these. Her kind nature was a huge plus for every team she played in.

Jordan, who also received national recognition for his successful sporting qualities, performed a high level for the school rugby team and he was a catalyst for improved team performance.

Moreover, he was selected to play for the Year 11 football team, and became a regular feature for a side who won local honours and reached the National Cup semi-final.

His dedication to rugby was recognised when he was selected to represent England last year in a Test Series against France. Jordan later received a scholarship for City of Hull Academy and has a promising career ahead of him.

Congratulations to both Lauryn and Jordan. You should be very proud of yourselves.

Wider Community Awards

The additional Wider Community Awards were presented to six other pupils including James Buttery, Macy Hart, Claire Potter, Leah Hobley and Holly Robinson.

James received the Reg Styles Award. His attitude towards his work was always positive, which showed in his outstanding GCSE results including 5 As and 1A*.

Macy received The Extra Mile Award. Whether it was in her commitment to her own studies, assisting the school at events or generally being there for her friends, she was a valuable member of the school and would always offer a helping hand.

Claire, winner of many awards, received the Ellen Gardner Award. She is constantly smiling and always sharing her positivity.

Holly received the Margaret Wright Award for her Excellence in Extra Curricular Music. She is a very talented singer and generously gave up her time to perform with the choir and take part in school productions. Her attitude and dedication has been outstanding.

William was awarded with The Jane Disbrey Award for his tower of strength and support for fellow pupils during difficult times.

Leah was presented with the Outstanding Linguist Award. She gave 100% effort towards her French work. She never gave up and always strived to be the best she could be. She thoroughly deserved to win this award.

Head Boy and Head Girl 2016

The Lord Dearing Memorial Prizes were presented to Ben Reed and Larissa Powell.

During their time in these inspiring roles, they provided support for other pupils and assisted the school at every opportunity.

They conducted their responsibilities with maturity beyond their years. They gained respect of all staff, pupils and parents.

Congratulations Ben and Larissa for your outstanding efforts in Year 11, you have really made us proud.

Thank you.
