The Malet Mercury

Dear Parents and students,

Thank you for all your hard work this term! The new school is just starting to be seen. The Sports Hall is fantastic and the English Department are delighted with their new rooms.

The students have managed in very difficult circumstances despite builders, diggers and a new roof—They are wonderful!

I hope that you will have a well deserved calm and happy Easter break.

Warm regards

fundraising in aid of

MS

Multiple Sclerosis Society

On December 2011, Cheryl Selby (Year 11A1r), decided to organise a fundraising campaign to raise awareness to Multiple Sclerosis, as part of her Creative and Media Diploma. Sponsored by a few Malet Teachers and braving the cold weather, she walked 4 lengths of the Humber Bridge with mom Sally and granddad Harry on the evening of the 17th January 2012, completing just over five and a half miles and raising around £200 for the Multiple Sclerosis Society. WELL DONE Cheryl!

Cheryl is also organising a gig on April the 1st in the "The Lamp" pub, where local bands will be playing in aid of MS.

Happy Easter

Malet Fall in Final for National Honours

It was heartache for the year 7 Malet Lambert boys team down in Derby as they lost in the final of the National 5 a side indoor tournament on Monday. Audenshaw, representing Tameside, edged out Malet 3-2 after extra time in a game that swung back and forth.

Malet had a tricky group with teams from Waltham, eventual winners Audenshaw and the team clocking up the furthest air miles in the tournament, Le Rocquier, making the journey all the way from Jersey. Malet started the tournament well and managed to grind out a 1-0 victory over Audenshaw, a victory that would later be avenged. The Malet boys can be extremely proud of themselves, they had a wonderful run in the tournament and only narrowly missed out on national honours.

Chadwick and Dale Deliver for Malet

Billy Chadwick and Jacob Dale both scored a brace for Malet Lambert as they thrashed Cardinal Heenan 6-1 at home on Wednesday evening to progress to the semi final of the National cup. Chadwick also set up two in what was a classy display by the Hull City starlet. Heenan who boasted players from Liverpool and Everton academy were outclasses by the Hull school in every department.

Cardinal started strong and applied testing early pressure. Adam Shimmin in the Malet goal was up to anything that came his way. While they had much of the play there were no clear cut chances with the defence showing stern resistance. The game then changed after 10 minutes as Chadwick picked up the ball in just inside the opponents half. After side stepping 3 men he unleashed a powerful right footed shot that nestled in the bottom right hand corner, a goal worthy of any national quarter final.

The goal seemed to give Malet momentum. Minutes later, Cameron Park, who was playing in an advanced midfield role, won a free kick approximately 25 yards out. Chadwick stood over the ball and despite a very strong wind in his face; he struck the ball beautifully into the top corner, leaving the keeper with absolutely no chance. This was a truly memorable strike and crucial goal in the context of the tie. Malet were rampant after this, and when Chadwick sent Jacob Dale through to score a third the tie was all but over. Dale showed real composure and a calm finish to put an end to a good move originating from the Malet defence.

It could have been four or five by half time if not for some fine saves from the Cardinal Heenan keeper. As it was Malet had to settle for a three goal lead. After the break Malet were equally as rampant with Park and Dale looking dangerous up front. They were well supported by Bradley Wilson and Lewis Brett who provided them with quality balls and service from either flanks. It was Brett who got Malet's fourth, when Josh Thacker set up Jacob Dale who forced a good save from the keeper it left Brett with the simplest of tap ins.

Malet were not finished there and made it 5 when Dale lashed in from close range after the Cardinal defence failed to clear a corner. The scoring was completed for Malet when Chadwick played a cute pass to the advancing Josh Thacker who squared for sub Josh Drury to slot in and complete a brilliant move.

Cardinal got on the score sheet late on, but it proved to be a mere consolation and put a very small downer on what was a terrific for the back four, led by Sam Thames and Harry Smith.

Next up for Malet Lambert is a home game against the winner of Thomas Telford School from Birmingham or St Margaret's from Liverpool, in the semi final to be played at home.

Berlin Trip

On the 14th December 2011, we left for Berlin! After 20 hours on the coach, we arrived in Germany's capital, and as soon as I stepped outside the coach I was amazed. Berlin looked so modern and big and yet not that busy. So much space for exploring and for enjoyment, and to top it off my best friend went with me! Hoorray!

We did so many activities, which varied so much. History, shopping, remembrance, everything! We truly experienced German culture. The definition of a Christmas market is Berlin! The German version of Comet (called Saturn, ironically), had 5 floors! I learnt so much towards my History course about Germany, with my teacher being there. The last day was the most emotional, when we visited the Sachsenhausen concentration camp . It really made me think...

Thanks a million to all our teachers!

Lille Xmas Trip

Lille Christmas 2011

The trip to Lille this year took place at Christmas. After a typical French breakfast in Lille we made an elevenes stop at a crêperie. However we had to earn our snack by successfully flipping the crêpes-not as easy as it looks!

After freshening up at the hotel we went into Lille to experience how Christmas celebrations begin in mainland Europe. The centre of Lille was festooned with lights and from the top of the huge Ferris wheel there was a magnificent view of Lille and the Christmas market. There was very much a festival atmosphere- and people had come from all over Europe to visit the market.

The market allowed us the opportunity to purchase a range of traditionally crafted gifts and local food and drink and really helped to build the Christmas feeling.

On Sunday we made a stop in Ypres just across the border in Belgium to stock up on Christmas chocolate and see Ypres getting ready for Christmas. It also gave us a chance to pay our respects at the Menin Gate.

The trip home on the ferry was a great way to end the trip with good food and entertainment.

We arrived back at school at 9am on Monday morning after visiting 3 countries in 2 days, experiencing the tastes and smells of a continental Christmas and stocking up on a few presents to give to our family and friends at home .

SKI TRIP 2012

During the February Half Term, 71 students from Malet Lambert took part in the school's annual ski trip to Austria. A gruelling 28 hour coach journey through five countries proved to be more than worth it. We arrived at the Crazy Post Hotel in a small village called Obervellach. The Hotel was very old and certainly in need of a touch of paint. This did not dampen our spirits. For what the hotel lacked in modern facilities, it made up for in character, social spaces and games areas. Two free pool tables, wifi and a disco room were a huge bonus.

The first day of skiing was a huge success with 71 students splitting into 7 groups based on ability. By the end of the day the majority of the beginners were beginning to make their turns and the more advanced groups had reacquainted themselves with skills they had learnt the previous year. By the end of the week all groups were able to ski most of the hardest runs on the Mountain. All of the participants took part in the traditional end of the week ski race which saw Joe Jordan win the race with Annie Alsop winning the best wipe which was also caught on camera.

There was more to the week than just skiing. Each evening provided a different activity. Swimming took place in the local swimming complex with tubing taking place at local flood lit ski slope. Tubing proved a huge hit with students sitting in rubber rings and launching themselves down a ski slope towards snow ramps. Charlotte East had the best wipe out with Ben McGregor successfully managing to launch himself six feet in the air upside down. Fortunately both escaped with minor bumps and bruises.

The grand finale to the week involved the annual DJ set and dance off organised by our very own Mr Beadle. Beadle's Beats is always a huge hit with Mr Beadle performing a plethora of 90's dance moves including 'Stack the Shelves' and the 'Jack Hammer'.

Overall this year's ski trip was a huge success. All of the 71 students were a credit to the school and behaved impeccably for the whole of the trip. Letters for the 2013 Ski Trip are now available from Mr Barton.

A video of this Year's Ski Trip is in the PE section of the School's website.

Business Mercury

For Entrepreneurs Only

On Monday 5th March 2012 50 Year 9 student took part in the Get into Biz Day in association with the For Entrepreneurs Only. FEO is made up of 70 entrepreneurs who have built successful businesses in Hull and the East Riding and are committed to sharing their experience and wisdom to help others to create wealth and jobs. A key focus is on education and inspiring a new generation of business owners, hence a series of FEO days for local schools featuring members of the group. The event was held at enterprise and employability hub The Exchange in the centre of Hull.

The day began with a superb opening speech by Jonathan Elvidge owner of Red 5 who encouraged students to develop their own ideas and start their own business. He explained to students he wasn't suggesting they should all launch into business straight from education, although some might want to do just that. But he did want them to believe that they too could turn their idea into a business, at some time in their working lives. "You can do it," he urged. "Don't think it's for other people. Keep those ideas in your head and, when the time is right, go for it". His final pearl of wisdom was powerful. "Companies like Google, Facebook, Apple and Microsoft were all started by young people with an idea and a vision, So true and what a thought-provoking message for young people in Hull to hear. For some, it might just be the spur for them to strike out on their own and create their own business success story.

Students then took part in 4 master classes with local business entrepreneurs which included:

- Business Finance
- Marketing
- Customer Service
- Legislation
