

SEND Information Report- Malet Lambert September 2022

1. The kinds of special educational needs for which provision is made at the school.

Malet Lambert is a large secondary academy, which caters for students with a wide range of special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) including physical disability, sensory impairment, dyslexia, general learning difficulties and autism. We believe passionately in the limitless potential of all our students and we strive to ensure that every student, whatever his /she need, is successful in achieving their own personal goals.

2. Information, in relation to mainstream schools and maintained nursery schools, about the school's policies for the identification and assessment of pupils with special educational needs.

The school's SEND policy is accessible on the website. The SEND policy and the arrangements for supporting students with SEND are routinely revised to ensure they are fully compliant with the regulations of the 2014 Children and Families Act and the Special Educational Needs and Disability Code of Practice 0-25 years, June 2014.

Identification of new students transferring from primary school is through routine data collections and information from SENCOs, class teachers, external agencies (if appropriate) and parents / carers; for students already receiving extra support the transition process may begin as early as Y5 depending on need.

On entry, all students are screened for their reading & spelling ability and these results are used with existing information to inform support arrangements.

Any member of staff, any parent or the student can raise concerns about a student having SEND themselves. Concerns should be referred to either: the SENCO, Head of House or Deputy Head of House in the first instance. A preliminary assessment will be made which may lead to further specialist testing before a decision regarding additional support is made.

Student progress is closely monitored through three annual data collections as well as on-going observations in the classroom, staff briefings and through the marking of work.

3. Information about the school's policies for making provision for pupils with special educational needs whether or not pupils have EHC Plans, including—

(a) how the school evaluates the effectiveness of its provision for such pupils;

- Standardised testing to measure improvement in skills e.g. reading accuracy, reading speed, reading comprehension, spelling accuracy, IT skills & writing speed
- Use of assessment data, lesson observations, learning walks, book sees, staff liaison and marking to measure progress in the classroom

- Discussion with students
- Parental feedback
- Senior leadership monitoring & evaluation procedure

(b) the school's arrangements for assessing and reviewing the progress of pupils with special educational needs;

- Vulnerable group progress is routinely analysed by the Senior Leadership Team (SLT)
- All data for students identified as SEND is analysed by the SENCo and any students failing to make expected progress are discussed at a team meeting at which intervention strategies are agreed on an individual basis.
- All student progress is closely monitored by Department staff and Department leaders at each data collection point.
- Additional annual reviews take place for students with an Education, Health Care Plan (EHCP).
- SEND team/SENCo to be involved in PEP meetings for CLA.
- An annual parent's evening is held for each year group, which the SENCo attends.
- A small number of students may require closer monitoring; this could be in the form of: daily contact through the student planner, additional home/school books, e-mail, telephone contact and letters as appropriate.

(c) the school's approach to teaching pupils with special educational needs;

- Subject teachers are responsible for differentiating lessons to meet the needs of all the students in their class.
- Recommendations and strategies to remove barriers to learning and enable access to the curriculum are made by the SENCo.
- Information on individual students with SEND is held electronically in a secure database; this is accessible to all classroom-based staff and is regularly updated; it includes relevant information on student attainment levels, areas of weakness, recommended support strategies and advice and support materials for staff to use in lessons.
- All students are taught in mainstream classes; there is a minimum of withdrawal for specialist input e.g. social skills groups and ELSA.
- Additional literacy / numeracy intervention is provided to narrow the gaps in the attainment of students with learning delays – some of which take place during Tutor period.

(d) How the school adapts the curriculum and learning environment for pupils with special educational needs;

- Differentiation of resources and learning materials by the subject teacher with support from the SENCo, lead teachers and School Improvement Leaders.
- A team of Teaching Assistants (TAs) work to provide in class support for identified students / groups and deliver interventions.
- Additional literacy & numeracy interventions.
- Personalised learning programmes / timetables.

- All subject areas have ground floor access for wheelchair users.
- Disabled facilities in the main buildings and a personal care room.

(e) Additional support for learning that is available to pupils with special educational needs;

Provision is allocated according to need and follows the “Access, Plan, Do & Review” process laid down in the revised Code of Practice 2014.

Additional literacy and numeracy support is provided in a variety of ways:

- Reading interventions run over the registration period; typically, a student would attend one or two sessions a week for a term after which progress would be reviewed and support adjusted.
- Dyslexic students may attend a weekly withdrawal lesson if appropriate.
- Y7 testing of reading & spelling skills identifies the students who attend registration interventions.
- Exam concessions – testing at the end of Y9 determines who qualifies for a range of exam concessions at GCSE; parents are informed by letter.
- Internal exams/ assessments - teaching staff have the flexibility to make arrangements as appropriate at KS3.

(f) Activities that are available for pupils with special educational needs in addition to those available in accordance with the curriculum;

- A daily meet and greet service is provided by the SEND department.
- Various lunchtime clubs run.
- Designated ‘safe areas’ for students to spend break and lunchtime.
- Trips / off site activities – every effort is made to include all students; parents and carers are consulted to ensure arrangements are appropriate

(g) Support that is available for improving the emotional and social development of pupils with special educational needs.

- Pastoral and Progress teams & form tutors
- Learning mentors
- School’s Educational Psychologist
- Youth & Family Support Service (YFSS)
- Counselling
- EWO
- Social Skills groups
- ELSA
